DAWSON — Gary Wayne Fleshman, 47, died early Wednesday morning, June 20, 2007, at his home following a courageous battle with cancer.

Born Aug. 20, 1959, in Hinton, he was the son of Claude “Junior” and Ruth Burdette Fleshman of Meadow Bridge. He was an employee for the Summers County Board of Education. There, he was maintenance supervisor with 30 years of service. He was youth pastor at Sunday Road Baptist Church at Hico for six years.

He was preceded in death by a sister, Betty Lou Fleshman.

Survivors include his wife of 23 years, Mary Fleshman; two daughters, Amanda Fuller and husband, T.R., of Dawson and Brandy Feamster and husband, Josh, of Norfolk, Va.; two sisters, Drema Cyrus and husband, Ronald, of Lewisburg and Helen Surbaugh of Meadow Bridge; a brother, Charles Fleshman and wife, Kathy, of Marie; a grandson, Zachary Fuller; four granddaughters, Sydney Feamster, Alexis, Hannah and Madison Fuller; three nephews, Curtis Coughlin and Jacob and Matthew Fleshman; three nieces, Tamara and Laken Cyrus and Christina Coughlin; a great-nephew, Bryce Cyrus; and two great-nieces, Breanna and Ayssa Horne.

Service will be 3 p.m. Sunday at Wallace and Wallace Funeral Home, Rainelle, with the Pastor Allen Donaldson and Pastor John Skaggs officiating. Entombment will follow in Wallace Memorial Mausoleum, Clintonville.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the family in care of Sunday Road Baptist Church, P.O. Box 98, Hico, W.Va. 25854.

Friends may call 5 to 8 p.m. Saturday at the funeral home.

Arrangements by Wallace & Wallace Funeral Home, Rainelle.
