

Charles Haynes

August 26, 1923 – July 29, 1979

(From Hinton News – July 31, 1979)

HAYNES

Services for Mr. Charles Elmore Haynes, Jr., 55, will be 2 p.m. Tuesday in the E. M. Meadows Funeral Home in Hinton. Burial will be in the Haynes Family Cemetery in Talcott.

Mr. Haynes died at 12:20 p.m. Sunday in a Beckley hospital after a short illness.

Born Aug. 26, 1923, in Pence Springs, he was the son of Mrs. Nellie Gore Haynes of Hinton and the late Charles Elmore Haynes, Sr.

Mr. Haynes was a former employee for the C & O Railroad Company, and also self employed as an automobile mechanic. He was a veteran of World War II and a member of the Second Baptist Church in Hinton.

Survivors include one daughter, Miss Cheryl Haynes of Dunbar; one brother, Nardi Haynes of Lewisburg, and two sisters, Mrs. Jean McDowelle of Hinton and Mrs. Aylse Lee of Buford, S.C.

Friends may call from 5 to 9 p.m. Monday

Nephews will serve as pallbearers.