Jesse J. "Jack" Plumley, 70, of Washington, W.Va., passed away May 2, 2012, at Camden Clark Medical Center-Memorial Campus.

He was born Jan. 6, 1942 in Hinton, son of the late Jesse C. and Gladys (Gill) Plumley.

Surviving is his wife, Garnette, and daughters Kim Hunt of Parkersburg and Lynn (Alan) Dyer of Pinch; five granddaughters, Jessica (Brandon) Ellis, Ashley Weathersbee and Kaitlyn, Jacklyn, and Kimberlyn Dyer, as well as two great-granddaughters, Nevaeh Weathersbee and Lily Ellis. Also surviving is a brother, Ryan (Freda) Plumley of Hinton and a sister, Linda VonderLinde of Tucson, Ariz.; a brother-in-law, Ronald Buckland (Terry) of Phoenix, Ariz. and a sister-in-law, Freda McVay, as well as several nieces and nephews.

He was a member of the Searchers' Sunday School Class, the Care Cell of the Carpenter and the KoCo program at St. Paul's United Methodist Church. He also served as a trustee and usher there and helped with the Parkersburg Urban Ministries housed at St. Paul's. More recently he became a member of the Grace Baptist Church.

Jack's wish was that all would know he was a Christian.

The funeral service will be held 2 p.m. Sunday at Kimes Funeral Home, 521 Fifth Street, Parkersburg. Rev. Todd Hill will officiate and burial will be at Sunset Memory Gardens. The visitation will be from 2-4 and 6-8 p.m. on Saturday and an hour prior to the service on Sunday.
