

Josie Meadows Moore

August 17, 1898 – February 28, 1977

(From - The Brookville American, Brookville, PA – Monday, February 28, 1977)

JOSIE M. MOORE

Josie M. Moore, of 41 North Third Street, Lewisburg, died February 28, 1977, in the Geisinger Medical Center in Danville at the age of 78.

Born in Hinton, W. Va., on August 27, 1898, she was the daughter of William P. and Emma Lowe Meadows, and was married to John J. Moore, who died in 1975.

Mrs. Moore was a resident of R. D. 4, Brookville for forty-five years, and was employed during her lifetime as a teacher. She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Brookville and the Roseville Missionary Society.

She is survived by four children: a son, J. William Moore, of Lewisburg; three daughters, Mrs. Margaret Frey, of Chambersburg, Mrs. Catherine McCoy, of Waynesboro, and Mrs. Virginia Means, of Lewisburg; two sisters, Miss Beulah Meadows, of Hinton, W. Va., Mrs. Charles Newland, Baltimore, Md., a brother, Clifford Meadows, of Hinton, W. Va., and twelve grandchildren. Two brothers preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday, March 2, at 1:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church in Brookville, the Rev. Dean A. Davidson officiating.