

Lucy Lee Tolliver Landers

May 20, 1934 – April 12, 2023

(From Clementsfuneralservice.com)

Lucy Lee Landers, May 20, 1934 - April 12, 2023, Durham, NC. Lucy died in the care of Amedisys Hospice after a long illness.

She was born in Jumping Branch, WV to Naaman Enoch Tolliver and Beulah Estaline Tolliver (née Simmons). After graduating from nursing school at McMillan Hospital in Charleston, WV, in 1953, she joined the Army and was stationed at Brook General Hospital in Fort Sam Houston where she met her husband, Jack Alan Landers. They moved to Durham, NC with their son in 1962 as one of the first residents of Parkwood. In 2019 they moved to Bartlett Reserve in Durham.

Lucy is survived by her husband Jack and leaves behind their son Stephen Landers (Elizabeth) and grandchildren Daniel and Sophia Landers; sisters Eleanor Keith, Martha Pack (Delso), and Ruth Pack; brother Stephen Enoch Tolliver (Betty); in-laws Joan and Ron Mansmith, nephews Mike Mansmith (Amy) and Mark Mansmith (Erica), and niece Jennifer Needham (Scott).

No services are planned.

The family is being assisted by Clements Funeral & Cremation Services, Inc. in Durham. Online condolences may be made at www.clementsfuneralservice.com.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to CancerCare's Co-Payment Assistance Foundation <https://www.cancercare.org/copayfoundation> or Duke Cancer Institute Fund <https://dukecancerinstitute.org/give>