NORA 'Tina' COOPER

Nora "Tina" Plumley Ramsey Cooper, 84, left this life on Friday, Jan. 14, 2005. Tina was born July 16, 1920, at Jumping Branch.

She is survived by her sons, Clinton L. Ramsey and Warren "Mike" Ramsey, both of Palm Bay, Fla., and her daughter, Vivian Nell Hannon of Grant, Ala. She was blessed with her brother-in-law, Josiah L. Lilly; her niece, Cora Leigh Pack of Flat Top; niece, Mary Jo Matherly of Beckley; seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

She was the daughter of the late Jasper Lee and Zettie Gerney Plumley. She was preceded in death by three brothers, two sisters and a grandchild.

Tina graduated from Hinton High School. Tina was a member of the Women's Army Corps and served our country in North Africa and Italy during World War II. She remained an active member and enjoyed camaraderie with the local WAC chapter. Tina was a charter member of the Women's Military Memorial in Washington, D.C. After the war, she moved to Charleston and worked at The Charleston Gazette newspaper while going to college to become a court stenographer. She attended Tabernacle Church in Eau Gallie and Salvation Army Church in Melbourne, Fla. She was a longtime resident of Eau Gallie and made many friends. She enjoyed many activities.

She and her former husband, Harold Ramsey, started ABCO A/C Refrigeration.

She will be missed greatly by many.

The viewing was at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, January 22 at Fountainhead Memorial Park & Funeral Home, 7303 Babcock St., S.E., Palm Bay, followed by service at 11 a.m. Donations can be made to the local WAC Chapter.

Your beloved family will miss you.
