Dr. C. M. Hall Dies in California

Dr. Cecil M. Hall, who practiced medicine here about 26 years before retiring three years ago and moving to Hemet, Calif., died Monday in Hemet. He had been in poor health since leaving here and seriously ill one week.

Memorial services will be conducted Saturday in Hinton, W.Va. Cremation will follow.

Hall, whose specialized in ophthalmology, first came to Great Falls in 1940 after practicing a brief period in Plentywood. He was associated with the Great Falls Clinic, except for two years in the Army in England, until he took a year's leave of absence in 1954. When he returned he established his own office, continuing in practice until retirement.

Survivors include the widow, Dorothy, and a son, Terrance in law school.
