

Hunter Green Farley

February 27, 1926 – February 6, 1995

(From Hinton News – February 14, 1995)

HUNTER GREEN FARLEY

Hunter Green Farley, 67, of Pipestem, died Mon., Feb. 6, 1995, in a Beckley hospital, following a long illness.

Born Feb. 27, 1926, at Pipestem, he was the son of the late Omer Sam Farley and Edna Rookstool Farley Wyand.

Mr. Farley was a lifelong resident of Pipestem, a water treatment operator for Pipestem State Park, a U.S. Army veteran of World War II, and a combat veteran in the 63rd Infantry Division in France and Germany.

He was a member and trustee of the Cooks Chapel Regular Baptist Church at Pipestem, member of VFW Post 11075 at Shady Spring, the Pipestem Volunteer Fire Dept., was a charter member of Pipestem Ruritan Club and he helped establish the community center and fire station at Pipestem.

He was preceded in death by an infant sister, Gloria Jean Farley and his stepfather, Dr. Fred B. Wyand.

Survivors include his wife of 47 years, Nellie Wills Farley; two sons, Charles Ray Farley and his wife, Rana of Pipestem and Samuel Lacy Farley and his wife, Betty of Mauldin, S.C.; two grandsons, Ray Farley of Princeton and Travis Wirt of Pipestem; two granddaughters, Betty Farley of Pipestem and Amy Farley of Mauldin, S.C.

Services were held at 2 p.m. Thurs. Feb. 9 at the Cooks Chapel Regular Baptist Church at Pipestem with the Revs. John and Danny Atkinson officiating. Burial followed in the Farley Cemetery at Pipestem.

Friends of the family served as pallbearers.

In lieu of flowers donations of sympathy may be made to the Pipestem Christian Academy or Pipestem Ruritan Club.

Arrangements by Pivont Funeral Home, Hinton.