

Charles Linden Sergent

February 7, 1956 – January 8, 2010

(From Hinton News – January 19, 2010)

CHARLES L. SERGENT

Charles L. Sergent, 53, of Prestonsburg, Ky, formerly of Hinton, died Friday, Jan. 8, 2010 at home.

He was the son of Mary E. Sergent Of Sutton, WV and the late Charles L. Sergent. Charley was a member of the First United Methodist Church. He was a licensed surveyor for the state of Kentucky and WV. He worked 28 years for Consol Energy and was state treasureR for Ky. Association of Professional Surveyors, KAPS.

He graduated from Hinton High School in 1974 and received a BS degree as a land surveyor from Glenville State College.

Charley loved gatherings with his immediate and extended family. He never missed Christmas with his mother and his siblings with their families. He enjoyed playing golf and beating his siblings at card games. He was a devoted husband, father and son. Family was very important to him.

Charley is survived by his loving wife of 29 years, Debra Malcomb Sergent formerly of Cowen, WV., two sons, Joshua L. Sergent, student at Kentucky University and Michael Shane Sergent, student at Big Sandy Community and Technical College. Two sisters Carol L. Crook of Hinton and Mary Jo Carr and husband Patrick of Flatwoods, WV., two brothers, Rick Sergent and wife Cheri of Stafford, Va., and John Jay Sergent of Alexandria, Va., two nephews, Kenneth Crook and Jacob Carr, two nieces, Lindy Crook and Bailey Sergent.

Funeral services were held 12:00 noon Tuesday, Jan. 12, at Nelson-Frazier Funeral Home in Martin, Ky., with Omery Chuck Hall officiating. Burial followed at Gethsemane Gardens in Prestonsburg, Ky.