

Orie Meador

October 16, 1916 – August 19, 1965

(From – Beckley Post-Herald and Raleigh-Register – Aug. 21, 1965)

Orie A. Meador Dies In Virginia

JUMPING BRANCH (RNS)—
Orie A. Meador, 48, of Portsmouth, Va., formerly of Jumping Branch, died Thursday at 4 p.m. en route to a Portsmouth hospital. Death was attributed to a heart attack.

Born in the Bluestone River Section, Oct. 18, 1916, he was the son of the late Abe and Linnie Meador.

He had lived in Portsmouth for 25 years.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Grace Meador; two sons, James of Los Angeles, Calif., and Jeffrey, at home; a daughter, Dreama, of Los Angeles, Calif.; two brothers, Odie and Okie, both of Jumping Branch, and three sisters, Mrs. Opal Grimmert and Mrs. Odelta Williams, both of Jumping Branch and Mrs. Janice Grimmert of Portsmouth, Va.

The funeral will be held Monday at Snelly's Funeral Home in Portsmouth, Va.