

Joseph Clair Bigony

November 18, 1898 – May 25, 1962

(From - Hinton Daily News – Saturday, May 26, 1962)

BIGONY FUNERAL SERVICE SUNDAY

Funeral services for Joseph Clair Bigony, 63, prominent Hinton resident, will be held at 2:30 p. m. in the Central Baptist church.

Dr. H. P. Hackney, the Rev. W. R. McCoy and the Rev. David Hell will officiate with burial to follow in the Restwood Memorial Estate.

The body will remain at the E. M. Meadows Funeral Home on Park Avenue until the service hour.

Active pallbearers include C. E. Fife, Gene Fife, R. S. Neely, Jr., Robert Spencer, E. E. Eckle and J. C. Dillon, Jr.

Named as honorary pallbearers were Dr. D. W. Ritter, Dr. B. W. McNeer, Dr. W. L. Van Sant, Hume K. Nowlan, H. A. Hamilton, Albert Crews, Jr., Horace Goodman, Men's Bible class of the Central Baptist church, the Hinton Kiwanis club and the Bluestone Boat Club.

Bigony died in the Hinton Hospital at 12:51 a. m. Friday morning after being taken ill while at work at the Hinton Builders Thursday morning. A life-long resident of Hinton, he was outstanding in civic, church and community work.