

Inez M. Brown

November 12, 1893 – March 17, 1982

(From Hinton News – March 24, 1982)

BROWN

Miss Inez M. Brown, 88, formerly of Hinton, died Wednesday March 17, in a Salem, Va., nursing home after a long illness.

Born Nov. 12, 1893, in Hinton, she was a daughter of the late Charles and Maude Campbell Brown.

Miss Brown was a member of the United Methodist Church, a graduate of Hinton High School and received her master's degree from New York University.

She taught at Hinton High School in the 1930s and was a retired associate professor of English and speech at the Middle School College in Cochran, Ga.

Survivors include a sister, Maude Pettierew of Starkey, Va.; two half brothers, Andrew Brown of Clearmont, Fla., and Charles Brown of Pensacola, Fla., and two half sisters, Mrs. E.S. Wing of Providence, R.I., and Mrs. J.P. Parrish of Puyallup, Wash.

Graveside services were held Friday March 18, at 2 p.m. at the Hill Top Cemetery in Hinton with the Rev. William Young officiating.

Ronald Meadows Funeral Parlors in Hinton was in charge of arrangements.