

Catherine Lipscomb Boley

October 9, 1901 – May 28, 1988

(From - Beckley Register-Herald – Tuesday, May 31, 1988)

Catherine (Katie) Boley

CHARLESTON — Mrs. Catherine (Katie) Boley, 86, formerly of Hinton, died Saturday, May 28, in a Charleston nursing home after a long illness.

Born Oct. 9, 1901, at Hinton, she was the daughter of the late W.T. and Annie Culliney Lipscomb.

Mrs. Boley was a former employee of the C&O Railroad at Hinton and a life-long member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church at Hinton and the Catholic Daughters of America.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Plummer H. Boley.

Survivors include two nephews, Tom Hanifin of Charleston and C. Steve Hanifin of Fort Mitchell, Ky.; and several great-nieces and nephews.

Mass of Christian Burial will be Monday at 10 a.m. in Sacred Heart Co-Cathedral at Charleston with Father Edward Sadie officiating. Burial will be Monday at 1 p.m. in Greenbrier Burial Park at Hinton with Father Felicilian Napoli officiating.

Friends may call today from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. at Barlow-Bonsall Funeral Home in Charleston, where a Christian Wake Service will be conducted at 7:30 p.m.