(From Pivont Funeral Home – November 2021)

Bradley Adam Jackson, 53 of 107 Main St. Hinton, West Virginia passed away on November 14, 2021.

Brad was born November 7, 1968 the only child to Verda Kay Jackson. Brad lived in Hinton most of his life. He moved to Virginia for a short time where he worked at Arlington National Cemetery. He spoke of this time fondly but with Brad, there was no place like home. Brad loved cooking, setting on the river bank (even if he wasn't fishing), and just enjoying the company of friends and family. Brad was such a humble soul. He loved whole heartedly and without restriction. He was a happy and jolly person with an infectious laugh. He loved joking and always had a story to tell. Helping people was his way and would lend a helping hand whenever he could. There was no job to big or too small. Brad loved his family and friends and absolutely loved being around them.

Brad was preceded in death by his mother Verda Kay Jackson, father Paul (Butch) Parks. Grandparents Henry and Mary Jackson, and Frances June Galloway. (Uncles) Douglas Jackson, Hiawatha (Dad) Carter. (Aunts) Dorothy Jean Miller, Donna Ann Meadows, Paula Jackson, Kathy Jackson, and Tamara Jackson. Also a friend who was thought of as a brother Greg Pack

Bad leaves to mourn (Aunts) Debra Jackson-Craigen, Sonia Galloway, Phyllis Galloway, Helen Galloway, Michelle Kpah.(Uncles) Henry (Buddy) Jackson, David Meadows, Bobby (PeeWee) Galloway, Danny Galloway, Charles (Oopy) Connor, and Don Galloway. (Cousins who were like brothers and sisters). Bruce, Shon, Scott, Rafael, Greg, Jessica, Dee', Nikki and a host of other cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends. Also thought of as brothers and lifelong friends Brad left behind, Keith Bond, Doug Cales, Erik Oliver, Tony Fullen, Kelly Galloway, Dennis Ward, and Derek Williams.

Anyone that knew Brad, knew of his kindness and that SMILE which we will never forget.
