

Ken H. Allman

Ken H. Allman, MBA, CMSR, FMSD, is founder and CEO of both PracticeLink—The Online Physician Job Bank and Magazine and MountainPlex Properties LLC. Both PracticeLink and MountainPlex Properties are based in Hinton, W.Va., Ken's hometown. Ken was a 1980 graduate of Hinton High School.

Prior to founding what became PracticeLink.com in 1994, Ken was a physician search consultant with the firm of Christopher & Long, where he was recognized as Recruiter of the Year for placing 20 physicians in a 20-month period.

Before entering the physician recruitment field, Ken was a management consultant for the international firm of Alexander Proudfoot, where he was honored as Outstanding Staff Management Consultant of the Year in both the United States and Worldwide for his work in the areas of quality and productivity improvement.

Ken holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Alderson-Broaddus College in pre-med biology, with concentrations in computer science and community health and public medicine. Ken completed one year of graduate work in biology at the University of Dayton.

Ken completed his EMBA at Washington University in St. Louis in 2009 and is a faculty member and Fellow of the College of Medical Staff Development.

In 2014, Ken was awarded the West Virginia Small Businessperson of the Year by the West Virginia Small Business Administration. He was recognized in 2009 as one of the nine top small-business executives by the West Virginia State Business Journal. Ken was the Friends of Business Award recipient from Summers County in 2011 from the Women's Business & Training Center.

Ken lives in St. Louis, Mo., with his wife, Julie and son, Charles.

Ken Allman We Salute You!

“To exit, hit the “X” on your browser's tab for this page”

