

William McCombs Buckland

July 17, 1926 – May 6, 1972

(From - Charleston Gazette - May 6, 1972)

William Buckland

HINTON—William McCombs "Red" Buckland, 46, of Hinton, died Thursday in Summers County Hospital of a heart attack.

He was an electrician for C&O Railway and was a member of Brotherhood of Electrical workers, First Baptist Church, Moose Lodge and VFW. Mr. Buckland was a native of Hinton.

Surviving: wife, Mamie; daughter, Miss Nellie Marie Buckland at home; stepson, David Lee Madison at home; stepfather, Paul Richmond of Hinton; sister, Mrs. Carrie Jo Williams of Hinton; half-brothers, Robert Richmond of St. George, Utah, Clarence Butler of Lewisburg.

Service will be 2:30 p.m. today in First Baptist Church of Hinton with the Rev. D. D. Elwell officiating. Burial will be in Restwood Memorial Estates in Hinton.

The body is at E. M. Meadows Funeral Home in Hinton and will be taken to the church an hour before the service.