Douglas Harrison Fox, age 79 of Hinton, WV, passed away May 1, 2011 at the VA Medical Center in Beckley, WV following a brief illness.

Doug was preceded in death by his wife of 48 ½ years, Gladys Marie Bennett Fox in 2001. Born March 27, 1932 at Pence Springs, he was the son of the late Owen Emmett Fox and Hallie Marie Reed Fox McKinney and the stepson of the late Abner Burl McKinney whom he also loved as his stepfather. His only brother James E. Fox and a nephew, Richard E. Bennett whom Doug and Gladys raised, also preceded him in death.

Left to cherish his memory are his son, Larry D. Fox and wife Kathy of Hinton, WV and his daughter, Teresa "Susie" Fox Adkins and husband Farrell of McLeansville, NC. Two grandsons whom he loved so much, Dr. Farrell Christopher Adkins and wife Amanda of Houston, TX and Nicholas Erin Adkins and wife Dr. Jennifer Adkins of Atlantic Beach, NC, two sisters-in-law, Betty Bennett of Fayetteville NC, and Sylvia Shafer of Charleston WV, and many nieces and nephews and church family.

Doug was proud to serve his country in the Army during the Korean Conflict. Afterwards, he enjoyed life as a semi-truck driver. During retirement he began his second career helping his son with Fox Photographics in Hinton. He loved making deliveries to the schools across the five state region making many friends, as he, seemingly, "never met a stranger".

Doug was always willing to help anyone out any way he could. He loved cooking for the men's prayer breakfast at Bellepoint Baptist Church with his best buddy Mason "George" Jones. He also loved bragging about his grandsons and going on road trips with them.

Visitation will be held on Tuesday, May 3rd from 6:00 until 9:00 and funeral services will be held on Wednesday May 4th at 11:00 am at the Pivont Funeral Home in Hinton, WV.
