PHYLLIS REED COFFMAN

Phyllis Reed Coffman, 50, of Madams Creek, Hinton, died Friday, Oct. 28, 2005, at her home following an extended illness.

Born July 31, 1955, in Hinton, she was a daughter of Talmadge Reed of Madams Creek, Hinton, and the late Edna Lilly Reed.

Phyllis was a former receptionist and personal secretary to Dr. C.P. Sharma. She had worked for a short time as secretary of First Presbyterian Church at Hinton, and most recently had worked as a receptionist for Dr. Stanley T. Day. She was a graduate of Hinton High School Class of 1973, attended Bellepoint Baptist Church in Hinton, where she was involved with the youth as pianist and formerly helped with the church newsletter.

Besides her mother, she was preceded in death by a brother, Ronald "Ronnie" Reed.

Besides her father, she is survived by her husband, Paul Coffman; a daughter, Kristen Coffman Boothe and husband, Dan, of Beaver; two sons, Keith Coffman of Beckley and Cody Coffman, a student at High Point University at High Point, N.C.; two grandsons, Travis and Alex Boothe; two brothers, Kenneth Reed and wife, Darlene, of Wise, Va., and Robert Reed and wife, Linda, of Madams Creek, Hinton.

Service was 1 p.m. Monday, October 31 at Ronald Meadows Funeral Parlors Chapel, Hinton, with Pastor Vondie Cook officiating. Burial followed in Restwood Memorial Gardens, Hinton.

Friends called 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday, October 30 at the funeral home.

Pallbearers were Frank Wheby, Jack Hartwell, Dickie Cook, Buck Meadows, Mason Jones and Mike Wood.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to The Walk For Her Lifetime, c/o Margie Temple, Summers County Appalachian Regional Hospital, P.O. Box 940, Hinton, WV 25951.
