Former Resident Dies In Virginia

HINTON (RNS) — H. Clifford Foster, 75, of Richmond, Va., formerly of Hinton, died at 1 a.m. Tuesday in a Richmond hospital after a short illness.

Born April 20, 1895, at Hinton, he was a son of the late William Gaston and Virginia Quinn Foster.

He lived most of his life in Hinton.

Foster was a retired assistant director of Labor Relations for the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway.

He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and the Masonic Lodge.

Survivors include his wife, Pearl Foster; a son, Dr. H. C. Foster Jr. of Martinsville, Va.; a brother, Dr. R. Hobert Foster of Huntington, and a sister, Mrs. Leta Williams of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

The funeral will be at 4 p.m. Thursday in the Ronald Meadows Funeral Parlors with Rev. Stewart McMurray in charge. Entombment will be in the Foster Mausoleum at Greenbrier Burial Park.

Friends may call after 9 a.m. Thursday.

Entombment rites will be conducted by members of the Hinton Masonic Lodge.
