West Virginia native, Douglas MacArthur “Mack” Keaton, 78, of Versailles, Kentucky passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, May 16th surrounded by family due to a terminal illness.

He was a loving husband to his best friend and wife, Shelby Jean for 58 years, as well as an amazing father and grandfather.

Mack did not know a stranger and loved all his friends dearly, including his Kentucky Utility co-workers of over 20 years. He loved the outdoors and enjoyed gardening, his bees, hunting and horseback riding. He loved to fish more than anything but could not catch a fish to save his life.

He leaves his wife Shelby Jean Adams; son Mitchell Keaton; daughter Nicole Wheatley and husband Danny Wheatley; daughter Ricki Keaton and granddaughter Kaitlyn Wheatley.

He will be deeply missed by his family, friends and all who knew him.

Visitation will be held at Blackburn & Ward Funeral Home on Saturday, May 22nd from 2:00 pm to 5:00 pm with a Funeral Service following at 5:00pm. Family and friends are encouraged to leave messages of condolence and share memories here on Mack’s tribute wall.
