

James Dare “Jimmy” Westfall

James Dare “Jimmy” Westfall, 90, of Austin, Texas, and formerly of Hinton, West Virginia, passed away in February 2026.

Jimmy was born in May 1935 and grew up in Hinton, where he graduated from Hinton High School with the Class of 1953. Shortly after graduation, he proudly joined the United States Air Force and served his country during the early years of the Cold War era.

Following his military service, Jimmy went on to build his life and career and eventually made his home in Austin, Texas. Though he lived many years in Texas, he always maintained strong ties to his West Virginia roots and the friends and community of his youth.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Mildred Westfall, along with family members and friends who will remember him with affection and respect.

Memorial arrangements will be announced at a later date.

A full obituary with additional details about Jimmy’s life, service, and family will be published when arrangements are finalized.
