

Janice Lorene Lilly Lindsay

September 18, 1931 – November 23, 2011

(From Ancestry and Findagrave.com)

Janice Lorene Lindsay, 80, of Aiken, died Wednesday, November 23, 2011 at Aiken Regional Medical Center, Aiken, South Carolina. She was born September 18, 1931 at Hinton, West Virginia

She is the daughter of the late Amma Fay Cox and Robert Vandalia Lilly.

She was preceded in death by sisters, Una Hedrick, Arlene Hunt, Gaye Decker, Mary Frances Broughmann, and Jean Swann West; and brothers, Odley Lilly and Elbert Lilly.

Survivors, her husband, Erastus James Lindsay; son Randy Keith Lindsay (wife Darlene); a sister, Dixie Lea Miller, and a brother, Robert Earl Lilly.

She was very active in her church, Foreman Memorial Baptist, and served as the Golden Circle Sunday School Teacher for 25 years. Serving the Lord was her greatest pleasure.

She was previously employed as an Operator at Hubbell Industry and had lived in Aiken since 1954.

Funeral services at the Chapel of the Shellhouse~Rivers Funeral Home in Aiken, with Revs. Brantley Bryan and William Eaves officiating.

The pallbearers were Kevin Lilly, Joe DeHart, Wayne DeHart, Jonathan Hamilton, Andrew Hamilton, and Josh Yon. Honorary pallbearers were the members of the Golden Circle Sunday School Class.

Memorials can be made to Foreman Memorial Baptist Church Building Fund, 207 Smith Ave., New Ellenton, SC 29809.