FOREWORD

INDIAN SUMMER

It is a time of gold and red and purple
When the maples wrap us in Indian summer arms,
When a year's colors decorate the trees,
When the deep and the deep are deep.

If I could only be an artist rare
I'd catch the magic colors of this time,
I'd capture beauty quite beyond compare,
Create a masterpiece that was sublime.

I'd paint majestic oaks in red and gold,
I'd paint the hickories and the hickory trees,
The red summer . . . on canvas I would hold
The beauty in such things as these.

I'd paint the crystal rivers where they sing
And journey quietly to far-off seas,
And happy fishermen . . . when everything
Is more or less like Heaven ought to be.

But since I cannot paint in artist way
The blue herons and the southbound bird
On canvas I can't do it all today
And paint it . . . in my humble way . . . with words.

Then I shall thank the God who made it all
And gave us outdoor beauty's finest hills,
The quiet coves . . . the mountains steep and tall,
And Indian Summer in our homeland hills.

WILLIE HARMON
Poet Laureate of West Virginia

DEDICATION

ELLSWORTH HEDRICK

The Senior Class of '74' is proud to dedicate the 1974 "Dart" to Mr. Ellsworth Hedrick, a great educator in the field of history and science. Born in the Talcott district, he received his early education there graduating from Talcott High School in 1935. He received his B.S. Degree from Concord College and has done graduate work at a number of schools, including W.V.U.

Before starting his long teaching career at Talcott High School and later Hinton High School, he taught in several one-room schools, and served as principal of multiple-room schools in Summers County.

He is a stern disciplinarian, but kind and friendly with his students. He demands, and usually receives, the best effort on the part of his students. This can be attested to by his outstanding record in West Virginia Club work. During his teaching career he has had 69 Golden Horseshoe winners--more than any other active teacher in West Virginia. In recognition of this record he was honored at the Golden Horseshoe Ceremonies in Charleston in 1973 and received a Golden Horseshoe from the State Superintendent of Schools.

We the Seniors salute you, Mr. Hedrick, and hope that you will always be first in the hearts of all the students at Hinton High School.

GOD'S WAY

Vera Yancey Johnson

Look up through faith, beyond this vale
Of death, and grief, and pain
To where each soul born unto God
Shall go to live again.
Just how, or why, or when we go
Is all The Master's plan,
And each must answer when He calls,
The same for every man.
Be not dismayed, what e're befalls,
God plans the very best,
And various are the ways He calls
His children into rest.

JAMES PORTERFIELD

Eleanor Meadows--James Porterfield

In appreciation to Miss Meadows and Mr. Porterfield for their time and efforts so generously given. We, the seniors, will be eternally grateful for the privilege of having been students in their classes. The influence of their teaching and their ability to guide us in the right directions will serve to make us better citizens as we go forward into life.

These Were the Days We Thought—

Would Never Come to an End!

We Worked, We Played and We

Sometimes Took Life Easy for a While.

Kathy

We Knew the Pride and Joy of Winning and

the Bitterness of Defeat as We Stored Up Our

Memories for the Day When We Would Finally——

Have to Say—FAREWELL

FAREWELL

Four years is a long time

--too long to forget.

We look around and ask

--where did it go?

We worked, we played

--but for four years?

Then we look the other way

--into tomorrow.

Suddenly we're not so tall

as we thought we were

And not so smart.

But we find that somehow

We learned a decisive lesson at Hinton High something we wouldn't have had

without the teachers and administration,

without our fellow students

--a direction into that uncertain tomorrow.

It can never be so dark again

Though the world may change

and the times change

and we change.

Man is challenged today to excel in almost every endeavor . . . those who do succeed often trace the beginnings of their performance pattern to accomplishment in high school and to those who offered stimulation and inspiration in these formative years. Josten's has long been a partner to these educational leaders in providing a means of motivation and the rewards of recognition, and Josten's products have become tangible symbols honoring perseverance and achievement.

The class ring is representative of the fine traditions of school spirit and unity □ The yearbook provides a lasting memento of the year's accomplishments □ The diploma is a lifelong record of scholastic success □ The graduation announcement heralds this achievement □ Awards recognize academic and athletic leadership.

More than 3,000 Josten's employees are dedicated to your complete satisfaction. Serving you locally:
