

Mary Isabelle Cotty Duncan

January 18, 1925 – January 19, 2002

(From - Bluefield Daily Telegraph - January 21, 2002)

Mrs. Mary Isabelle Crotty Duncan

PIPESTEM - Mrs. Mary Isabelle Crotty Duncan, 77, of the True Road, Pipestem, died early Saturday morning, Jan. 19, 2002 at the Princeton Community Hospital.

Born Jan. 18, 1925 at Lick Creek, she was the daughter of the late Walter Ernest and Una Keaton Crotty. She graduated from Hinton High School, was a devoted wife, mother, and was an avid farmer. She had served as President of the Women's Society of Christian Services at James Chapel for over 20 years. She also had taught Sunday school classes at both James Chapel and at Cooks Chapel.

Survivors include her husband of over 56 years, Charles Lee Duncan Jr.; son, Barry Keith Duncan and wife, Jane Astin, both of Christiansburg, Va.; and daughter, Beverly K. Duncan-Edleman and husband, Daniel Edleman, both of Raleigh, N.C.

Graveside services will be held at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Resthaven Memorial Park in Princeton with the Rev. Stella June Falvo officiating.

Friends may call at the Memorial Funeral Directory on the Athens Road in Princeton from 6-8 p.m. today.

Those wishing to attend services are requested to meet at the funeral home by 12:30 p.m.