

Albertine “Merle” Ewing Border

March 13, 1910 – October 23, 2001

(From Ancestry and Findagrave.com)

Albertine "Merle" Ewing Border, 91, of Charleston died Oct. 23, 2001, in St. Francis Hospital.

She was born on Sunday, March 13, 1910 in Charlottesville, Va. Merle was the daughter of the late Frazier R. Ewing and Alberta Moore Wright Ewing.

Two brothers, Frazier R. Ewing and Wilbur A. Ewing and their wives preceded her in death.

She was the wife of William R. Border. They were married on Sunday, December 23, 1934 at Bream Memorial Presbyterian Church in Charleston. Merle was a long time resident of Hinton and Charleston. She was a member of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension, Hinton. She graduated from Hinton High School in 1928. She attended several colleges, including Capitol City Commercial College, Blackstone, Concord and Marshall University.

Surviving her are two daughters, Gretchen K. Border and Karen B. Anderson; two stepdaughters, Barbara Haddox and Joanne Radford and their families; son-in-law, Alan A. Anderson; three granddaughters, Christine Anderson, Susan Stoker, Mary Kay Anderson; and three great grandchildren, James, Rachel, and Alexander. She is also survived by nieces, nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews.

A private family service will be held at a later date. Bartlett-Burdette-Cox Funeral Home, Charleston is in charge of arrangements.