Former Resident Dies In Florida

Mrs. Maude Mahanes died at 3 p.m. Tuesday in St. Petersburg, Fla., after being in ill health for several years.

Mrs. Mahanes, the former Maude Land, was well known here as she spent her youth and greater part of her life in this city. Her husband, W. Grayson Mahanes was employed by the C&O shops here and at the time of his retirement was general foreman of the C&O at Whitesville.

She returned to Hinton to visit annually and it was while visiting here two years ago that she was stricken ill.

Survivors, in addition to her husband, is her step-mother, Mrs. W. M. Land of Richmond.

Arrangements are incomplete. However, the body will be returned to Richmond for burial.
