(From Pivont Funeral Home – May 2015)

Philip Clinton (Kenny) Pack, 77, of Carlisle Kentucky passed away Saturday, May 30, 2015 at home after a valiant battle with cancer.

Phil was born June 22, 1937 in Streeter West Virginia to the late Ester and Ora (Cooper) Pack.

Regardless of where life took him, in his heart, Streeter was always home. Phil graduated from Hinton High School in 1955 where he loved to play football for the Hinton Bobcats and where he earned the nickname "Little John" due to his strength of character, body and spirit.

He continued to do this nickname proud throughout his lifetime. Phil went on to have a successful career as a Manager in the transportation industry. In addition, Phil was an entrepreneur. He owned and operated several successful businesses after his retirement. Phil loved fishing and hunting and always looked forward to his annual fishing and hunting outings with the "guys". He was a devoted and loving husband, father, grandfather, and brother as well as a loyal friend to those who were blessed to know him. Phil was also a diehard Cleveland Browns' fan. He liked nothing better on a Sunday afternoon than to watch "his" team play football, regardless of whether they won or lost. Usually, they lost! In 1985 Phil became a member of the Masonic Order where he devoted over 30 years of service. During his time as a Master Mason, Phil was the recipient of the Mason of the Year for Kentucky award. In addition, Phil was elected to serve in the following offices during his tenure as a Mason: Master of the Orient 500 Lodge, 2001 and 2005;

District Deputy Grand Master for District 30, 2004; Treasurer, Orient 500 Lodge, 2009 and 2010; and, Secretary, Orient 500 Lodge, 2011. At the time of his death, Phil was the member of the Amity 40 Lodge of Millersburg, Kentucky.

Phil was preceded in death by his loving father and mother, Ester and Ora (Cooper) Pack and three brothers Gary, Larry and Ray Pack.

To mourn his passing, Phil leaves his wife, Judy Evans-Pack of Carlisle, Kentucky; one son, Philip W. Pack (Tammy) of Porter, Indiana; three daughters, Tammie Deneen (Keith) of Lakeland Florida; Shelli Bostic of Columbus Ohio; and, Sherri Adkins (Matt) of Ashville, North Carolina; one step-daughter, Rhonda Caldwell (David) of Lexington Kentucky and three step-sons, Darrell Evans (Heather) of Carlisle, Kentucky; Wesley Evans (Shannon) of Russell Springs, Kentucky; and, Patrick Evans (Melissa) of Heidrick, Kentucky.
