

James C. "J C" Dillon

December 30, 1916 – April 12, 1993

(From Hinton News – April 13, 1993)

J.C. DILLON

Mr. J. C. Dillon, 76, of Charleston, formerly of Hinton, died Mon. morning Apr. 12, 1993, in the Summers County Hospital at Hinton, following a long illness.

Born Dec. 30, 1916 at Indian Mills, he was a son of the late Sheriff J.C. and Grace Leftwich Dillon Sr. and had lived most of his life in Hinton.

Mr. Dillon was a Army veteran of WWII and member of Central Baptist Church. He was a former W.Va. State Senator from the 10 Senatorial District, retired as Clerk of the Senate, former chairman of W.Va. State Democratic Executive Committee having served for 9 years. He also was founder and co-owner of Don Array Shop in Hinton.

He was preceded in death by his wife Margaret Gilbert Dillon and 4 brothers.

Survivors include his son Jim Dillon of Hinton; one brother Rev. Fred Dillon of Logan; and one granddaughter Margaret Ruth Dillon of Hinton.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. Wed. at Central Baptist Church with the Rev. Robert Moore officiating. Burial will follow in the Greenbrier Burial Park in Hinton.

Friends may call Tues. from 5 til 8 p.m. and at the church one hour prior to services.

Pallbearers will be Jack L. "Buzzy" Hellems, Arnett Willey, Kyle Gwinn, Herb Ellison, Bob Hatfield, and Chuck Smith.